The Story of Health Care

In Lamont, Alberta

By

Trudy A. Harrold

A long and colorful history has been captured fully in the new book, On Highest Mission Sent: The Story of Health Care in Lamont, Alberta. Using both words and pictures, the book tells the story of the development of the United Church sponsored hospital in Lamont, Alberta. The story begins with the early settlement years, and, decade by decade, details the people, programs, and processes that have made Lamont's hospital special. Dr. Albert Archer, Dr. Morley A. R. Young, and the School of Nursing, 1912-1972, are just a few of the significant contributors to the long tradition of excellence in health care in Lamont. A new integrated health care facility, completed in 1999, promises to continue those traditions into the future.
